FACULTY BULLETIN #4 11/8/2005

Dear Faculty Advisor:

We hope to have the hotel reservation site active by next week, November 21st. In the meantime, please register your students for the conference!

With the budget cutbacks, the conference numbers are reduced, if you wait you may lose the opportunity to participate.

Please consider focusing on seniors. Preliminary registration indicates a strong recruiting event and this is of key importance to rising seniors. Remind them too, of the necessity to bring business attire and 25 (or more) copies of their resumes.

We have filled in the few remaining “holes” in the workshop schedule and now offer students and faculty some additional workshops. Check the workshop list...

For those faculty participating in the Pre-Service Teacher Summer Institutes, do not forget to register for the Institute review session. David Pearson will run this session and it is open to those who participate in the Summer Institute program.

I will send out a bulletin to let you know when the hotel site is open.

Thanks,

Natalie Friend
